HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON ASSASSINATIONS

Captioned committee, by letter dated June 16, 1978, requested an interview with Special Agent D. Alan Reighley, III, Allentown, Pennsylvania, Resident Agency, Philadelphia Division, at a date to be later decided. The interview was subsequently scheduled at 11:00 a.m., on July 11, 1978, at the House Office Building, Annex 2, Second and D Streets, S.W., Washington, D. C.

On July 11, 1978, SA Reighley was interviewed by Staff Attorney Tom Sacco, House Select Committee on Assassinations (HSCA), at the above address. Mr. Sacco advised he is in the process of "tying up loose ends" in that portion of the Martin Luther King assassination dealing with "extremist groups". All of his questioning concerned activities of the Klan and Minutemen groups in the Reading, Pennsylvania, area during the period of August, 1967, through April, 1968, when Dr. King was assassinated. SA Reighley was able to give Mr. Sacco a fairly detailed account of the general activities of these groups during the pertinent period.

During the above interview, Mr. Sacco advised that he is in receipt of certain "allegations" from certain sources regarding the relationship between the FBI and Klan and Minutemen groups in the Philadelphia FBI territory, and, more specifically, the Reading area. The "allegations" being that the FBI "on a regular basis" furnished right wing extremist groups with intelligence information for their use against Dr. King. He stated he has specific reference to an allegation that the FBI in the Reading area furnished extremist groups with photographs of Dr. King in attendance at a meeting with "communists" which the extremist groups used to try to discredit Dr. King.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

House Select Committee on Assassinations

In answer to the above "allegation", SA Reighley emphatically denied that the FBI in the Reading area had ever engaged in such activity during his assignment there, nor had he ever received any information that this had been done in the FBI elsewhere.

Mr. Sacco stated that the above "allegations" came from Roy Frankhouser (former Grand Dragon of the United Klans of America for Pennsylvania and activist with numerous white hate groups including the Minutemen); and that he had also received the same information from "other sources". He later admitted that his investigation indicates that the information received from "other sources" emanated from Frankhouser. Mr. Sacco then asked numerous questions about Frankhouser and his background and SA Reighley answered these questions in detail. He also asked questions regarding the relationship between Frankhouser and FBI Agents in the Philadelphia Division. He made specific reference to retired SAs William E. Davis and Frank Kauffman, formerly of the Reading Resident Agency; and retired Assistant Director Joe Jameson, former Special Agent in Charge of the Philadelphia Division. SA Reighley stated that his relationship with Frankhouser had always been an "investigator-subject" relationship and that to the best of his knowledge, this was the same relationship that Davis and Kauffman had with Frankhouser. SA Reighley also advised Mr. Sacco that he has no information at all as to whether or not Frankhouser had any relationship whatsoever with Special Agent in Charge Jameson but that it is highly unlikely that Frankhouser had ever even met Mr. Jameson.

Mr. Sacco stated that SA Reighley had sufficiently covered the area in which he is interested and he sees no necessity to call anyone else from the FBI concerning this particular matter. He indicated that he had certainly questioned the reliability of the source of the allegations, namely, Frankhouser; however, his main concern was leaving the "allegations" unanswered. SA Reighley thanked Mr. Sacco for the opportunity to answer the "allegations" and offered to be of any future assistance in this regard.
